KYLE VICK ANNOUNCES FOR STATE SENATOR

KYLE VICK

* * *

Kyle Vick was born in Moody, McLennan county, Texas, and raised in Waco with the exception of about six years residence in Temple, Bell county, Texas. He attended and graduated from Waco Public Schools and received his legal training at the University of Texas. He entered the practice of law at Waco in 1915, where he has since that time been identified with the legal profession there.

He served five and one-half years as Judge of the County Court-at-Law of McLennan county, being the judge selected to preside over said court at the time the court was created by the legislature. During the entire time he was in office he had no opposition and voluntarily retired in 1933 to reenter the practice of law. He also served as assistant county attorney of McLennan county. He is now 48 years of age.

Kyle Vick says that there has been enough promises made in regard to legislation directed toward payment of the old age pensions and other Social Security problems without any action being taken. He says there should be no reason why all branches of the government of the state should not co-operate in the passage of the best and quickest plan offered for payment of our Social Security problems which includes old age pensions, teachers' retirement and other obligations.

He pledges co-operation in the passage of the best and quickest plan offered for a solution of these problems and favors payment without delay to the old folks of their pensions in full.

He is neither controlled by nor obligated to any special interest.

At a later date he will discuss other matters of importance to the people of this senatorial district.

The vote and influence of the people who want action will be appreciated.

George Washington Pratt Celebrates His 81st Birthday at Farm Home Sunday, June 2nd, 1940

Eighty-one years ago George Washington Pratt was born in Giles County, Tennessee.

On Sunday, June 2, 1940, he celebrated his birthday anniversary.

Participating in the celebration were 110, including close friends and members of his family.

It was a happy occasion for Mr. Pratt, the pioneer and father of nine children who came to Milam county 71 years ago and who has lived at his present home for 49 years. It was also a happy occasion for the friends and relatives who spent the day and a portion of the evening in the happy environs of the Pratt home and farm which for a half century has been a place of interest to many.

The Pratt family has long been prominent in American history and much of the history of the family touches important periods in the life of the nation.

When Mr. Pratt came to Texas he was a boy of 10. The prairies had not then known the plowshare and the country was resplendent in wild beauty. The Red Men long since erased by time from the plains of Texas was then a substantial part of the population farther west in Texas were then a substantial part the settlements for raids and to trade with the whites.

Mr. Pratt on the occasion of his 81st birthday was happy in the reflection which is his today in rich degree because of his experiences. Time has wrought many changes but this pioneer has retained the vigor and spirit of his younger days, enjoys splendid health and was congratulated on his 81st birthday as one of the few remaining pioneers who has lived beyond the alloted time.

The early settlement of Milam county is a historic period in which the Pratt family played a prominent part. The father of George Washington Pratt was a native of Tennessee. His mother was a native of Alabama. After their marriage they made their home in Tennessee and from that state came to Milam county 71 years ago.

Mr. Pratt was born on June 4, 1859. He has married twice, the first time to Miss Mary Cloud and to them were born four children as follows: Sam Pratt, Homer Pratt, Floyd Pratt and Mrs. Jeff Cochran. His first marriage was on September 25, 1879.

On November 1, 1893, he was married to Miss Betty Baker who now shares with him the country home and many pleasant experiences of the past. To them were born five children as follows: Mrs. W. R. Isabelle, Mrs. R. L. Bollinger, Mrs. Henry McFarland, Mrs. W. A. Bollinger and Mrs. E. L. Chestine.

All of the children of both marriages were present for the birthday celebration.

The celebration was observed without a set program. At noon lunch was served in grand style with all the hospitality true of southern pioneers and Mr. Pratt occupying the place of honor.

Friends in Cameron and all over the county extend their congratulations and wish for him many more such happy occasions.

Midget Daily Completes One Year With This Issue; No Flowers Arrive But We Feel We Are Appreciated by the Community

Today one year ago Cameron citizens found at widely seperate points in the business district what at first seemed to them to be just another circular.

On second examination they were sure it was an unusual kind of circular.

The next day they found the same publication.

At first they were incredulous, believing that nothing so small or insignificant in appearance could either last long or become a part of the daily life of our community.

On the second day the reception was better and within a week its popularity had grown to such an extent that offices of the publisher were crowded at 3 p. m. each day with eager citizens wanting a copy of the Midget.

Today is the First Anniversary of the Daily Midget.

It has been published now continuously for one year. Up to noon Thursday the Daily had received no congratulations or flowers. In fact it is no doubt true that no thought, as is usual, has been given to the birthday of the Little Daily. Its place however is undoubtedly secure in the estimation of all the people.

The Daily Midget is unique in the annals of newspapers, in fact is the only daily of its kind in America and perhaps the world.

Cameron has shown it appreciates the little daily and the publishers feel that on its First Anniversary its prestige is better established.

The chief concern of the publishers was and continues to be whether The Daily Midget may always find a place of service. It is not for us to say, rather for you and all those who have found it both a pleasure and cource of information on the news of the day.

We hope we have been useful. We have tried to serve. We have given much.

The Daily Midget is here to stay. It will in time become an indispensible factor in Cameron's daily life.

The paper has during its first year made its way and shows a profit on operation. That is something to reassure all. We want your continued co-operation. We know you like it because you have said so many times.

It's our birthday.

The Publishers.

CAMERON POPULATION MAY BE OVER 6000

Cameron's 1940 population may be 6000 according to indications Saturday.

What the official count will be is not known and will not be known for some 30 days.

It must be taken into account that enumeration is confined to the city limits. Cameron is notoriously cramped in the matter of a city limit.

During recent years the city has broken over the boundaries in all directions with the results that almost a thousand people are believed to reside in these sections and who are not eligible to be counted in the strict city limit population.

Secretary Paden of the Chamber of Commerce told a representative of the Daily Herald Saturday morning he believed the city could show a population around 6000 or more if these people could be taken into account.

Not one of the new additions to the city can be counted. The city was laid out many years ago and the limits have never been extended.

TOMATOE SHED OPENS IN CAMERON MONDAY

A development of wide general interest to farmers and business as well, was the announcement here Saturday morning by Hayden Lawrence of the Cameron Ice & Cold Storage Company that the packing shed for tomatoes and cantaloupes will be opend Monday morning June 3.

Mr. Lawrence said that he received telegraphic advices from H. E Downs of Pharr, that he will be in Cameron Monday to open the shed.

Tomatoes are now ready for packing. They will be received at the plant of the Cameron Ice & Cold Storage Company.

The Tomatoe crop is short throughout Texas and it appears that although the acreage here is not as heavy as might be accommodated, this section will share in the market. Rosebud and Yoakum both report good tomato crops.

Mr. Lawrence feels that these market facilities are the best obtainable. Mr. Pharr will have more to say when he reaches Cameron Monday to formally open the market for tomatoes and cantaloupes.

Five Billions for National Defense

President Roosevelt today bootsted his national defense demands to Five Billion Dollars when he asked the Congress to appropriate one and a quarter billions for training of one million men in combatant and noncombatant branches of the new army.

The national defense program was progressing well with the new defense council having been empowered with war time duties. More guns, airplanes and tanks was the demand.

ITALIANS THREAT OF WAR MADE AGAINST AMERICA

Literature Seized and Man Arrested Near Hearne Tuesday by Ranger Jim Perkins

Special Ranger Jim Jerkins took into custody shortly after noon today A. H. Page on the Mumford road out of Hearne and confiscated a large quantity of literature similar to the religious tracts now making their appearance throughout Texas.

Sheriff Reaves was notified at Franklin.

Mr. Perkins found a letter from Fred Wismar 1004 South 29th street in Temple in the Page home and also said that a large number of other letters were found.

The pamphlets, said Perkins, are printed in German, Italian and English and are being distributed among Negroes as well as white.

Sheriff Bigham was notified and was making an investigation.

Here is the letter Wismar wrote from his Temple address to Page at Hearne.

"Dear Brother Page:

"On Sunday, June 9, we will call on you and others with you in the Kingdom work to consider matters pertaining to Jehovah's Theocratic government and our privileges of service in connection therewith.

"Please inform the pioneers, Bro. and Sister Smith who were in Hearne, about our coming. We can all meet in Hearne or other place convenient for service and a model study and also a Watchtower study. If they have moved please send me their new address.

"We expect to be at your place about 8:30 a. m. Sunday June 9th and will be prepared to go into field service.

"If you inform the interested colored parties in Hearne about our coming we can also arrange a meeting with them.

"Events are happenng much in accordance with divine prophecy and great are our privileges.

"With best wishes I remain,

Yours in the Theocracy,

Fred Wismar.

The Watchtower is a Communist publication and first appeared in Fifth Column activities in Del Rio when Legion men stopped distribution and forced a man and several women to leave the city.

Suit Here Ended for Division of Property Involving Hospital

A suit brought in District Court by Dr. W. R. Newton against Dr. Eduard Rischar was ended today but the decision could not be obtained in time for publication.

The agreement reached was to be recorded sometime today in the office of the District Clerk.

The suit involves disposition of interests of the late Dr. W. R. Newton and Dr. Rischar. Under the Texas partnership law property owned jointly thus cannot be allocated or liquidated without court procedure.

It was understood that Dr. W. R. Newton, Jr., who brought the suit, had made an offer to purchase the property or to sell the interests of his father under terms of the suit at an unannounced figure.

Since the death of Dr. Newton the hospital has been leased to Dr. Rischar.

SANCTUARY FOR POPE OFFERED BY ROOSEVELT

By J. B. WHITE

The French Army after 36 hours of assault by the Germans the fury of which the world has never witnessed, was holding strongly at all points and in no case has a break through occured, it was officially announced at noon today.

In Italy the controlled press loosed a blast against the United States. If America lends aid to Britain and France the war will spread to the Wetern Hemisphere, said the Italians. War is threatened against the Unted States in the officially controlled press.

Italy today threatened war against the United States for what Rome termed aid to England and France.

The struggle may become one of the continent against another, said the official Italian press.

President Roosevelt, it was disclosed today had offered Pope Pius a haven of refuge in America if it become necessary for him to leave Italy.

The Pope was reported to have made his final plea to Mussolini for peace.

When the Germans opened their new offensive on the Somme Wednesday they threw into the battle 2500 tanks and 1000 bombing planes. With these motorized units and infantry.

New defense tactics hastily devised by General Weygand were said to be working admirably with the result that the thrust has been turned back on most of the front stretching from Abbeyville to the city of Ameins.

German tanks penetrating the French lines to a distance of 6 miles were said to have been destroyed, the famous French 75 gun, famous from World War days, was being brought into the battle in great numbers and at point blank range are blasting the German tanks. A radio broadcast shortly before noon said 400 German tanks were destroyed since Thursday. In some instances, it was said, that tanks were not resisted but when they had penetrated through the French lines, were entraped and destroyed.

For many miles back of the French lines, defenses have been set up. It was said that there is a continuous defense system all the way back to Paris.

The Germans are being subjected to withering cross fire from artillery, machine guns and rifles. German infantry breaking through in the wake of armoured cars and tanks are being being wiped out by the thousands said a French communication.

The German drive was apparently designed to march in two bridgheads on Paris, one at Peronne and the other at Abbeyville down the cost to LeHarve. The Germans are within 60 miles of Paris as the crow flies.

For the first time since the war began the figthing has resolved itself to a basis of man to man infantry attack. This is, according to observers what the French hoped for.

The German High Command claimed the armies of Hitler had gained ground all along the line.

The French said the line had been dented but at no place had a break through occured.

Fears were belived held by both Italy and Germany that the United States might decide to aid the Allies.

Both the British and French Ambassadors from America were calling President Roosevelt by trans-atlantic phone and by cable urging a speed up of planes and war materials to England and France.

Premier Paul Reynaud of France will speak at 4:55 today.

Increasing evidence of America's coming participation in the war was disclosed today when WPA projects,

FRENCH SAY NAZIS LOSSES FATAL TO REICH

France and England have spurned peace in advance of any anticipated offer on the part of Adolph Hitler, it was announced in London Saturday following a meeting of the Supreme War Council.

The Allies are prepared to fight on. They regard the rescue of the Allied Armies from Flanders as a triumph because of the superior German operations that lost them the territory.

It was said that only one division now remains in Flanders. They are believed to be French.

German losses continue to be substantially recorded as heavy. These estimates are borne out by statements from Berlin as well as from Allied and neutral capitals.

German attacks at Abbeyville reported late Friday as having been recaptured by the Allies, have been thrown back with heavy losses.

French Artillery has been unleashed in the most terrific big gun attack of the war in the Calias region German units both mechanized and infantry are said to be heavily battered by the incessant flow of shells.

The Allies report much valuable ground has been gained at Calias.

In one section of the Flanders battle field the Germans reported early Saturday to have taken 26,000 prisoners.

The Germans claimed that the battleship Nelson, pride of the British navy has been sunk. The British said the claim was not worthy of denial.

Italian entry into the war was believed to have been determined although there was no movement. Italy is expected to strike at France and not at North Africa. The Russian attitude was beleived responsible for abandonment of any plan to attack in the Balkans. This was believed also to be good strategy on the part of Germany and Italy as Turkey and Greece could be kept out.

A well known news agency commenting Saturday on German losses said that estimates had been placed as high as 60 per cent in the armored divisions and tank corps.

France in an official cable said that the French army is now supreme in mecanized units.

Allied war in the air was still believed to be deficient in comparison to the Germans but losses have been heavy for the Nazis in the three weeks old blitzkreig.

There have been no statements regarding Allied losses except the German estimates. Germany claims the the air force of France has been wiped ut, that France has only about one milion men to continue the war.

France had Eight Million Men at the beginning of the war and never at any time had more than 300,000 in the Flanders battle. The German satement is not understood.

Sea power was lauded today over the delivery of French and British armies from the coast at Dunqurque. German air forces were unable to prevent rescue of at least a bulk of the Allied forces.

Mary Frances White returned home from Mary Hardin-Baylor College Tuesday. She will be a junior in college next year.

August Seidel and O. A. Hennegar of Bushdale were business visitors in Cameron Wednesday.

Fatal Car Wreck Near Cameron; One Dead Two Injured In Crash Monday

Joe Klimek, Jr., of New Ulm, was killed instantly Monday morning at 10:15 o'clock near Pettibone when the car in which he was riding crashed a truck loaded with shelled oats.

E. F. Zatopek of Schertz, and Lade Baca of Fayetteville also in car were critically injured and rushed to the Camereon hospital. According to information received by the Cameron Daily Herald, the car, a 1935 Ford coach, was driven by Zatopek.

The Ford was proceeding toward Temple on highway 36 and Henry K. Porter of Belton and a companion, Fritz Krause, also of Belton, were traveling in a truck towards Cameron when the machines collided. Neither of the occupants of the truck were seriously injured.

Justice Womack Brashear was called to the scene of the wreck and after an investigation stated that the collision was an unavoidable accident, the Ford having gotten out of control of the driver and according to eye witnesses including the truck driver, the driver of the Ford was attempting to right the machine when it ran into the front of the truck. The truck driver was exonerated of all blame. There was no evidence of any of the parties in the wreck being under the influence of intoxicants.

Reports at noon today stated that Zatopek and Baca are still in serious condition and their families have been notified.

The body of Klimek will be taken to Fayetteville by Marek-Burns Funeral Home.

BLACK OUTLOOK FOR ALLIES OVER DEFEATS

In a brilliant retreat from Flanders praised even by the German High Command as the most amazing military performance in the history of warfare the British and French had retrieved at least four fifths of their armies, it was disclosed late Sunday in a government communication from Paris.

All that remained however for the Germans to complete their total conquest of the channel ports, was final overrunning of the small sailent maintained by Allies for evacuation of their troops at Dunpurpue.

The final action in the now major victory of Nazi Germany in the Flanders campaign will be a mopping up. But one division of Allied troops remained in the pocket.

On the Somme river where in 1916 the French and British lost 386,000 men killed in battle and survived to win the war events were shaping rapidly for another Battle of the Somme.

Germans were reported massing for an attack in this area and although the French have reported local successes and claim that the line from Abbeyville to the main fortifications of the Maginot line on the Rhine is intact and can withstand the German assault, there was a feeling the Allies may not be able to cope with the Hitler machine.

There has been no major Allied offensive and none is looked for.

In Berlin the High Command said no breathing spell would be given the Allies. Notwithstanding this assertion there has been comparative quiet on the new battle line.

There was speculation over where the next move would be made and where Hitler will attack.

All indications are that England for the time is safe from invasion. The Germans are saving the "choice morsel" for the last. In the meantime their intention, according to the German press is to destroy France and then turn to the British Isles.

The Daily Herald predicts that although Hitler may feel he is strong enough to take Paris and crush France in 3 weeks, the loss would be heavy, maybe too heavy at this stage of the war. Instead there is, in the belief of this journal, strong probability of an attack in the Balkans to further solidify the Reich with raw materials and to satisfy Italian ambitions in that area.

It is no secret that Italy desires no grips with French soldiers. An attack in North Africa might occur. It appears it may come in the Balkans while England and France are recovering from the 9 count in the ring of Flanders.

Soviet Russia, long blustering over her rights in the Balkans may have an opportunity to assert her long intended military intervention in the event Italy strikes. Russia is bound to Bulgaria, Jugoslavia and Hungary by military pacts.

What the position of Turkey will be in the event Italy enters the war is forecast by her alliance with Greece, England and France. Will the influence of Soviet Russia keep Turkey out? Did Russia secure Baltic ports in fear of a German victory? What will Stalin do in case Germany succeeds to dominance in Europe and the World? All are worthy of thought and perhaps answer?

SOVIET RUSSIA IS ON SPOT IF ITALY STRIKES

More than a half hundred French civilians were slain in German bombing raids in the Valley of the Rhone and at Versailles on the Mediterranean last Saturday.

For the first time this section of France felt the war of Nazi bombs.

With Italy already declared to have determined upon entry that part of France may be the next theatre of war and the deciding one for the destiny of the Republic and the world.

Adolph Hitler gave President Roosevelt a promise that civilian populations would not be bombed. Versailles may be classified as a military objective but the valley of the Rhone, plain route to Rome is peacetime air flight, is not a military objective. At Lyons a number of civilians were killed.

Reprisals no doubt will be the Nazi answer for British raids on Freiberg and Hamburg. So the war moves out of the civilized atmosphere so far as open towns are concerned and waste will be laid with death and destruction to every human being in the path of war guns.

Speculation was rife on whether Hitler was saying "come on" to Mussolini.

Tuesday was said to be the day on which Mussolini will make his decision.

Nothing could be further from truth.

Itlay will strike at an hour when the world least expects.

offered and because of the splendid citizenship he finds in this county.

Mr. Williamson came to Texas about four years ago and after acquiring his state license as a surveyor, looked over a number of Texas cities and counties with the view of locating for practice and decided on Cameron. "I was influenced by the country and the people," said Mr. Williamson, "and also by the great need here for a highly trained man in this profession."

Mr. Williamson has been working out of Cameron for almost a year and several months ago moved his family to this city. They have found a place of service in the community and have made many friends. They are all members of the Methodist Church and look forward with much pleasure to making Cameron their permanent home.

Mr. Williamson points out that land surveying in the county is in need of better methods and pledges the people that in the event of his election he will do all within his power to operate the office on an engineering basis and to do his best to rectify some of the land discrepancies that now exist in the county.

He will greatly appreciate your vote and support and will consider his election a confidence that would call forth his best efforts to repay the people in faithful and efficient service for their trust. The office of county surveyor is important and requires the service of one so trained, his friends point out.

In making his campaign Mr. Williamson hopes to see all the voters, but in the event this is impossible, he extends to one and all his sincere greetings and invites your support, pledging loyalty and faithful performance of duty at all times.

Vegetable Laxative Makes Happy Friends

Here's a laxative that usually acts thoroughly as harsher ones but is a gentle persuader for intestines when used this way: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight; a drink of water. There's usually time for a good night's rest, with a gentle, thorough action next morning relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is a splendid combination of vegetable ingredients, chief of which is an "intestinal tonic-laxative", that helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles. It's economical. 25 to 40 doses: 25c.

FERGUSON'S WON'T DENY MILK TO INSANE PATIENTS

Bread and milk have always been regarded as the basic food that sustains human life. With a loaf of bread and a bottle of milk, no one need starve to death.

Our present governor apparently agrees that bread is the staff of life, because he never overlooks a chance to advertise flour. He seems to regard milk, however, as a minor and unnecessary commodity

When the last legislature appropriated $12,000 to build and equip barns and purchase dairy cattle for the San Antonio State Hospital in order that insane patients might have nourishing milk to drink, the governor promptly vetoed the item. When the legislature appropriated $16,000 for the same purpose to be used at the Terrell State Hospital for the insane, his veto axe fell again.

This is the same governor who is broadcasting over the radio and through his private newspaper that the legislature prevented him from keeping his promise to the poor unfortunates of the State.

The Fergusons promise not to veto any appropriation which the legislature, in its wisdom, may see fit to pass for the alleviation of suffering among our insane.

DARK DAYS AHEAD FOR CIVILIZED NATIONS

Adolph Hitler, leader of the Nazi legions, Wednesday threw the might of his armies against France in what was believed the final effort to reduce the French and bring a quick end to the war.

The long looked for total war against France was believed in the making as the German armies began a thrust toward Paris at Laon midway between the Somme and Marne Rivers. The main pressure of the German attack seemed to be concentrated at the point nearest the French capital.

In a message to the German people Hitler asked the people of the Reich to pay homage to his soldiers now starting on the final struggle to "free the Reich."

This message was taken to indicate that total war was at hand and the long looked for supreme German offensive was in the making.

The news was heavily censored. Little could be learned from the Allied capitals.

German armies were believed to have gained considerable headway in the battle that opened late yesterday.

Hitler announced that his immediate effort is to defeat France and after that he will march on London. The campaign, systematic and calculating has been mapped out in total, according to information.

So sure is Hitler that he can accomplish what he has set out to do that he has followed the general policy of announcing in advance what his aims are on the field of battle.

News commentators expressed the belief that France could hold the Germans back.

The most important as well as surprising development was the trend of the battle. Grmany seemed to be using world war tactics, meeting the French with infantry attack. Mecanized equipment was largely missing from the major battle which early today began the long expected German effort to take Paris and defeat France.

From Rome observations were made that Italy may not join in the war to aid Germany. "There is little chance of Italy going in," said the comment.

England, nursing wounds from the disaster in Flanders, was not expected to be able to aid France and the battle now developing will be a decisive engagement between the Germans and French armies.

Before the war France was credited with having the best army the world has yet known. If the war now follows the line of the last world war, the French may be able to stand off the German tide.

Germany was attacking all along the line from Abbeyville on the Channel to a distance of 90 miles. The front was an inferno of war with infantry clashing. Penetrations of the French lines were reported. Germany was apparently succeeding in thrusting another bridgehead deep into the French lines, to cross the Somme and push on to the objective some 25 miles from Paris, the limitations of the present effort.

Capitulation of the French capital would follow if the Germans succeed in this thrust.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI.

Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI'S principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodical distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

No Filings Made in Hospital Suit Here

Agreements reported to have been reached by counsel in the suit involving disposition of the Cameron Hospital properties, have not as yet been filed in district court.

The agreement will be submitted to the court for review. It is to be prepared by attorneys for Dr. W. R. Newton and Criminal District Attorney Bill Morrison represents Dr. Rischar.

Under the terms of the Texas law governing partnership court action was necessary to arrive at disposition of the property owned jointly by the late Dr. W. R. Newton, Sr., and Dr. Eduard Rischar.

It was understood that Dr. Newton had made a proposal to buy the properties at a given figure or to dispose for the estate the properties at a given price. The agreement which is yet to be filed will disclose the basis of settlement.

Judge Kyle Vick For State Senator

Kyle Vick, former judge of the McLennan county court-at-law at one time assistant county attorney, Saturday announced his candidacy for senator from the thriteenth district of Texas in opposition to Doss Hardin of Prairie Hill.

Vick, a native of McLennan county and son of the late Pat Vick, prominent farmer of McLennn and Coryell counties, has been practicing law in Waco since 1915. He was judge of the McLennan county court from 1927 to 1933, after already having served for two years as assistant county attorney.

Vick said in making his announcemen that "too many promises have been made Texas people with reference to old age pensions and social security without any action being taken. I think more effort should be made toward co-operation between the different branches of government charged with the responsibility of paying these obligations."

The new candidate, a graduate of Waco High school, received his legal training at the University

BRITAIN CUT OFF FROM CONTINENT

The British government said today advices had been received from the Italian government stating that Italy is to enter the war on the side of Germany.

The minimum demands of Italy on Great Britain and France was said to be demilitarization of Malta, handing over the Suez canal and evacuation of Gibraltar.

Italian newspaper correspondents in Parris have been ordered to Rome.

In Rome government spokesmen engaged in an attack on the United States. The attack was brought on by a letter written to Mussolini by a private citizen. On such flimsy excuses totalitarian states go to war.

The attack accused the American government of threatening to enter the war to aid England and France if Mussolini permitted the spread of the conflict by entering.

Adolph Hitler had called in his man Paul Joseph Goebbels and Herman Goering. A nationally known news agency said that Hitler would announce Italy's entrance into the war.

The German high command announced today the closing of the first phase of the war with a great victory in Flanders.

The high command said France has lost a million men and has only million left to face 8 million Germans and 4 million Italians.

At the same time the German high command said that heavy losses had been inflicted on the British naval forces in the attempt to evacuate the escaping armies at channel ports.

The British said they had been successful and already have taken a large part of the defeated army out of the German vice.

In the pocket 200,000 Allied soldiers still remain. They are being attacked by 600,000 German soldiers.

The British government said losses have not been heavy in evacuation of their armies from Flanders.

It was estimated by the British that approximatly 270,000 Allied soldiers are still in Flanders.

The British launched an attack on the Somme river and were reported to have driven through to take an important post and 200 German prisoners.

At Dunqurque the French sea port now battered by days of incessent bombing the British are said to have counter attacked in an effort to relieve retreating units of the shattered army with success.

The British said that a cruiser had been sunk off the coast of Norway by the Germans.

Observers said that comparative quiet should now settle over the battle fields for a few days. This would enable Hitler to consolidate his great gains and permit him to bring reinforcemens and prepare for the coming onslaught against France.

Now that the Germans have established the weakness of the Allies invasion of Switzerland was becoming less likely. The Germans are expected to start a frontal attack on the Maginot line or break through on the Somme.

French armies under General Weygand are believed to have fortified themselves during the Flanders battle and are prepared to meet German onslaughts on the Somme and other points of the Allied wall from the sea to the Sedan sector.

335,000 MEN TAKEN FROM FLANDERS POCKET

French bombing planes in quick reprisals against the Nazi for the destructive raid on Paris striking swiftly back at Germany Tuesday are said officially to have inflicted considerable damage on Munich.

It will be remembered that Munich was the scene of the back bedaling conference in which the Czechs were scuttled by Nevile Chamberlain and Eduard Deladier.

The German news agency said that bombs fell in the city of Munich. There was no confirmation from Paris or from London on the raid and nothing could be learned of the extent of the French effort.

The Germans reported the capture of Dunqurque closing the fateful battle of Flanders and gained the entire coast from Switzerland to Boulogne for the armies of Adolph Hitler.

The battle was fought and lost against military supremacy and Belgian treachery, so said Winston Churchill in the House of Commons Tuesday.

In the House of Commons in London Winston Churchill, British Prime Mnister, gave a frank and disparaging account of the battle of Flanders. Mr. Churchill said the loss of the battle was a military disaster from which the Empire could not readily recover.

A total of 335,000 soldiers were saved from the German thrust, said Mr. Churchill, but much of the best equipment possessed by the empire was lost, including artillery and motorized equipment and munitions.

The British Isles are now defended, he said, by the strongest military force in the history of the empire. "We will not be content to fight a defensive battle alone," said Mr. Churchill.

Amid speculation there was comparative quiet on the battle fronts Tuesday. Except for the bombing of Le Harve no new developments indicated what Hitler may now have in mind.

More and more the German raids on Paris were believed to have been made as a gesture to Mussolini.

In Rome it was reported that following the cabinet meeting Italy was placed a step nearer the brink of war with important mobilization regulations promulgated for the colonies in Africa.

Mussolini was given additional cooperation from the cabinet placing the entire Italian empire on a war footing and mobolization was proceeding fast.

In London the British said that full anticipation of Italian entry into the war had been made by the French and British and if Italy enters it will be an act of unprovoked agression and the Allies will fight Italy.

In London Churchill reiterated the determination of the Allies to fight on to victory. In some circles, especially in America it was believed that England will soon have been rendered helpless and unable to aid France. This would leave the Germans free to use all their military power against the French and with the aid of Italy bring a quick end to the war.

In Washington developments seemed to indicate that the American government wishes to aid France and England but the slow moving democracy cannot function sufficiently fast to bring aid to the Democracies now fighting Hitler.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mackensen and small son, of Baton Rough, La., spent a few days here with her mother, Mrs. Katherine K. Robbins, and while here visited his parents in Austin before returning home.

Thompson Enters Governor's Race

Austin, June 1.—Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson today announced his candidacy for governor on a 14-point platform featuring an increase of five cents per barrel in the oil tax to finance social security services.

He also expressed unalterable opposition to a sales tax in any form and advocated creation of a separate oil and gas commission and a statewide soil conservation program. Further, he advocated a reduction in the automobile license fee and substitution of free regisaration for the poll tax.

James Sanders returned to Burnet this morning after spending the week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Vince Krupicka and children of Buckholts visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Masar and family Sunday.
